WHY NOW

A Second Guru for the Turbulent Years

“Home is the first school, parents the first gurus,” goes the popular saying. But adolescence brings a private struggle no loving home can fully reach. For 83 years, SRVM has been the second guru: a conducive environment where discipline, spiritual anchoring, and moral clarity are built deliberately, forming young men who are nation-centric, emotionally balanced, and spiritually rooted.

Education is not the amount of information that is put into your brain and runs riot there, undigested, all your life. We must have life-building, man-making, character-making assimilation of ideas.

— Swami Vivekananda

SRVM currently operates on an at-cost model of roughly ₹60,000 per student per year, funding an annual scholarship and service outlay of ₹75,00,000, supporting 50+ fully sponsored students directly and a further ₹1 lakh scholarship each to 10 underprivileged girl students externally.

Today that entire operation is rebuilt from scratch every year, pulling monastic wardens away from mentoring and into an unending fundraising cycle. A permanent corpus ends that cycle, converting year-to-year uncertainty into year-to-year certainty.

THE ASK

₹10.78 Crore — Sized to Endure, Not Just Meet

At a 7% return, this corpus fully sponsors 50 aspirants in perpetuity — with a built-in cushion so the promise holds even in a weaker return year:

UPSC Aspirants	10	₹14,70,000	₹2.10 Cr
NDA Aspirants	25	₹36,75,000	₹5.25 Cr
Degree Aspirants	15	₹24,00,000	₹3.43 Cr
Total	50	₹75,45,000	₹10.78 Cr

THE DIFFERENCE YOU MAKE

What Your Gift Builds

An endowment gift to SRVM does not fund a building alone — it funds a lifetime. Recent SRVM students have undertaken a first-of-its-kind, multi-day educational pilgrimage to IIT Madras hosted personally by its Director; received free coaching toward NDA, UPSC, IIT-JEE and NEET from visiting professors; and gone on to careers spanning engineering leadership, the Indian Navy, medicine, academia, and monastic service.

This is what “character-building” has meant in practice for 83 years: not a slogan, but a measurable, generational return on every rupee given. Swami Vivekananda believed that a handful of young men, filled with faith in themselves and in their country, could change the destiny of a nation. SRVM has spent eight decades quietly, patiently assembling exactly that — one student, one batch, one endowment at a time.
